CHICAGO, January 1, 1902.

In pursuance of the provision of "An Act to encourage and promote the establishment of free public libraries in cities, villages, and towns of this State" (Illinois), the Trustees of The Newberry Library present this their tenth annual report.

Owing to the resignation of Mr. William Harrison Bradley, and the death of General Alexander C. McClurg, two vacancies have occurred in the Board of Trustees since the last annual report, January 1, 1901.

These vacancies were filled by the election of Mr. Moses J. Wentworth and Mr. Horace H. Martin.

The annual report of the Librarian, appended hereto, and marked Exhibits II to V inclusive, presents the general statistics of the Library for the past year, embracing location of the several Departments, list of Donors, and their respective gifts. In addition to the usual acknowledgment made by our Librarian to each Donor, the Trustees would present special thanks to the friends who have generously presented the Library with these valuable publications.

There is also appended hereto, marked Exhibit VI, a statement of the property belonging to the corporation.

Respectfully submitted,

LAMBERT TREE,

Second Vice-President.

CHICAGO, January 1, 1903.

In pursuance of the provision of "An Act to encourage and promote the establishment of free public libraries in cities, villages, and towns of this State" (Illinois), the Trustees of The Newberry Library present this their eleventh annual report.

The Trustees have been called upon to mourn, during the past year, the loss by death of their honored associate, Edward Swift Isham, Esq., which occurred in New York on February 16th, 1902. From the death of Mr. Newberry until the organization of the Library, Mr. Isham, in connection with his partner, Robert T. Lincoln, was the Attorney of the Executors and Trustees of Mr. Newberry's Estate, and since the Library was organized, has held the office of First Vice-President.

A copy of the memorial tribute of Mr. Isham's associate Trustees, presented and placed upon their records, will be found herewith, marked Exhibit I.

The vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Isham was filled by the election of Mr. David B. Jones.

The names of the present Trustees of the Library are given in Exhibit II.

In the annual report of the Librarian, appended hereto, and marked Exhibits II to VI, inclusive, general statistics of the Library are presented for the past year, embracing the attendance, the accessions by gift and purchase, with statement of the more prominent gifts, the number of current periodicals on file, the present location of the several Departments of the Library, with full list of donors and their respective gifts. In addition to the usual acknowledgment made by the Librarian to each Donor, the Trustees would herewith offer special thanks to the friends who have generously presented the Library with their valuable publications.

There is also appended hereto, marked Exhibit VII, a statement of the property belonging to the corporation.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. Blatchford,
President.

MEMORIAL TO EDWARD SWIFT ISHAM, ESQ.

January 1, 1903.

The Trustees of The Newberry Library, in loving remembrance, place upon its records their appreciation of the eminent ability and loyalty to its interests of their late co-worker, Edward Swift Isham, and with this their realization not alone of their loss of a wise and judicious counsellor, but of the loss sustained by the city of Chicago in the passing away of a citizen so greatly honored and esteemed.

From the organization of the Library he had borne his full part in its development and growing usefulness.

He was a great lawyer. For many years he had stood in the foremost ranks in the profession he had chosen, a profession he loved and honored. He was a man of exalted character, of great erudition, of rare attainments in many lines, and of a learning at once wide and exact.

He passed away in the very prime of his manhood, in the fulness of his splendid intellectual powers.

He was widely learned, yet tolerant of the views of those differing from him, and his relations with his co-trustees were most kindly and of unbroken harmony. By his associates he is profoundly mourned.

Franklin H. Head,
George E. Adams,
Bryan Lathrop.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN.

The Librarian has the honor to submit to the Board of Trustees of the Newberry Library his report for the year 1902.

The number of visitors is 64 less than it was in 1901. The attendance would have been larger but for the moving of several departments and the consequent derangement of a portion of the Library for a period of ninety days. There has been a decided advance in the number of books consulted.

The accessions, by gift and purchase, for the year last past, exclusive of duplicates, number 7,003 volumes and 1,947 pamphlets.

We begin the year with 191,501 volumes and 69,272 pamphlets, maps, manuscripts, etc.; a total of 260,773.

The number of current periodicals on file is 1,327, viz.: American, 603; Belgian, 12; Bohemian, 2; Canadian, 8; Chinese, 2; Danish, 1; Dutch, 6; English, 223; French, 128; German, 268; Italian, 38; Japanese, 4; Mexican, 1; North American Indian, 1; Norwegian, 3; Portuguese, 1; Russian, 3; Spanish, 6; Swedish, 11; Swiss, 6.

Among the prominent gifts of the year may be named the following: Hon. George E. Adams, Chicago, 119 volumes and 1 pamphlet, embracing Proceedings and Reports of Learned Societies and Publications of the United States government;

American Medical Association, Chicago, 2 volumes and 2,370 pamphlets of Medical periodical publications; Mr. Edward E. Ayer, Chicago, 2 books in microscopic print, twenty lines to the inch; Mr. J. C. Bartlett, Chicago, 36 volumes and 3 pamphlets, Pedagogic works and Classical grammars; Bibliotheca Nacional, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 34 volumes and 34 pamphlets, Official State Documents and Reports; Dr. R. W. Bishop, Chicago, 94 volumes, embracing a complete set of Jahrbuch fur Kinderheilkunde and a large series of Medical text books; Rt. Rev. C. E. Cheney, Chicago, 85 volumes of the Quarterly Review, published in London, 1809-1849; Clinical Society, London, 14 volumes of its Transactions; Dr. D. J. Doherty, Chicago, 18 volumes and 41 pamphlets of miscellaneous Medical periodicals; Dr. D. N. Eisendrath, Chicago, 27 volumes of various Medical text books; Dr. E. A. Gray, Chicago, 13 volumes of extracts from Jean Paul Richter's Works, in German; Indiana State Library, Indianapolis, 25 volumes and 9 pamphlets of State reports; Illinois Secretary of State, Springfield, 46 volumes and 44 pamphlets of various State documents and reports; Mr. Victor F. Lawson, Chicago, 67 bound volumes of the New York Herald, 1884-1900; Mrs. W. S. Merrill, Chicago, 43 volumes of Musical compositions; Michigan State Library, Lansing, 57 volumes and 60 pamphlets of State reports; Dr. L. J. Mitchell, Chicago, 39 volumes and 819 pamphlets, embracing Public health reports, Medical text books and miscellaneous works; Miss Harriet Monroe, Chicago, 22 volumes of the Edinburgh encyclopædia, conducted by Sir D. Brewster, 1832; Mr. H. C. Morris, Chicago, 112 volumes and 71 pamphlets of Codes, Statutes, and other Law publications relating to various States of the United States; Pennsylvania State Library, Harrisburg, 60 volumes, consisting of Pennsylvania state reports and of the Pennsylvania archives, printed under direction of Hon. Frank Reeder, Secretary of the Commonwealth, and edited by Dr. Wm. H. Egle; Mrs. E. S. Porter, Chicago, 91 volumes, Philosophical and Ecclesiastical works; Mrs. N. Senn, Chicago, 10 folio volumes of S. W. Bushnell's "Oriental ceramic art, illustrated by examples from the collection of W. T. Walters;" Dr. N. Senn, Chicago, 40 volumes, 6 pamphlets, 2 manuscripts of Medical society publications and Reports.

A notable feature of the year's work is the re-arrangement and consolidation of several of the departments. The changes made involved the transportation of 74,000 volumes from one floor to another, and the uniting of four rooms formerly separated by partition walls. The present location of the departments is given in Exhibit V.

The recent effort to dispose of our large accumulation of duplicates gives promise of a successful issue.

The work of the various departments has been already reported by the Committee on Administration.

Respectfully,

J. V. Cheney,
Librarian.

CHICAGO, January 1, 1904.

Again the Trustees have been called upon to mourn the loss by death of one of their associates—Mr. Henry J. Willing, one of the Corporate members of the Board, who died at his temporary summer residence, at Jefferson, New Hampshire, on September 28, 1903. A copy of the memorial tribute to Mr. Willing, adopted by the Board, and placed upon their records, will be found herewith, marked Exhibit I.

The names of the present Board of Trustees of the Library are appended hereto, marked Exhibit II.

The Officers of the Library are as follows:

First Vice-President—LAMBERT TREE.
Second Vice-President—GEORGE E. ADAMS.
Secretary and Financial Agent—JESSE L. MOSS.

HENRY J. WILLING.

The Trustees of The Newberry Library, in loving remembrance place upon its records their recognition of the constant loyalty to its interests of their late associate, Henry J. Willing. They record also their regret at the loss of a judicious adviser and their appreciation of the loss to the city of Chicago, in the passing away of an esteemed and honored citizen.

Mr. Willing had been a member of the Board of Trustees from the organization of the corporation. His judgment as to the financial affairs of the Library was of great value. His views were always conservative and firmly held and were the result of long experience in the activities of a successful mercantile life.

After his retirement from active business he gave for the remaining twenty years of his life much of his time and effort to charitable and municipal affairs. In him private charities and public services were nobly united. His ideals were high and his devotion to them unswerving.

He was a lover and appreciative reader of the best literature, and his well-filled library, collected through many decades, by himself and his accomplished wife, was of the best.

He was by nature deeply imbued with the religious sentiment, and his work in the church which he loved was, while modestly rendered, of rare efficiency. To him was given length of days well spent, and an honorable and exemplary career—a beautiful and well nigh blameless life.

FRANKLIN H. HEAD,
MOSES J. WENTWORTH,
JOHN P. WILSON,
Committee.
